The auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church was filled with a large and fashionable gathering Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. James A. Drain, formerly of Lincoln, but now of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Ethel Marsland, of this city. The pulpit platform was almost entirely hidden beneath a mass of smilax and pink roses, tastefully arranged, presenting a handsome appearance. Professor Ragnall presided at the organ, and as the melodious strains from the beautiful wedding march by Lohengrin pealed forth, the bridal party approached the front of the church, having been preceded by the family. The bride, prettily attired in a becoming costume of white broadened satin, was attended by her father, Mr. T. H. Marsland, and met the groom at the altar. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Curtis, assisted by Rev. C. E. Bradt, of the Second Presbyterian Church. Mr. and Mrs. Drain passed out the left aisle, following Elma Marsland, the bride's little sister, who was throwing flowers in their path.

A wedding supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marsland, in East Lincoln, immediately after the ceremony, attended by relatives and intimate friends. Later in the evening the Tuesday evening club, of which the bride was a valued member, went out in a body to offer congratulations, and wish the happy couple God-speed on their journey and joy and prosperity in their new home. The club was represented by the following members: Misses Clara Walsh, Minnie Letta, Gertrude Laws, Nellie White, Maude Smith, Anna Barr, Dena Loomis, Grace Griffith, Messrs. S. T. St John, W. Morton Smith, G. P. Facon, Oscar Funke, G. W. Gerwig and Dr. C. F. Ladd. The party of friends afterwards witnessed the departure of the bride and groom at the Burlington depot. They go directly to Spokane and will be "at home" after July 15. The groom is well-known here, having been connected with one of the prominent banks of the city. The bride is a lovely and talented young lady, and highly esteemed in the circles in which she moved. Her popularity was attested by the large number of beautiful and costly gifts bestowed by loving friends, embracing silver and china-ware, etc., in great variety.

A large and fashionable assembly gathered at the Church of the Holy Trinity at high noon, Wednesday, to witness the wedding of Mr. John B. Horton and Miss Helen McCandless Wade. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers, and two little pages held possession of the main aisle. The church was well filled, and promptly at 2 the bride appeared leaning on the arm of the groom, and preceded by the ushers, Mr. Dan Wing and Mr. G. W. Loomis. She was very beautiful in her white bridal costume and veil. The strains of the wedding march, from Lohengrin, were continued in soft melody during the impressive service. The bride was given away by her mother, Mrs. T. M. Wade. Mr. and Mrs. Horton passed at the main entrance to greet their friends as they passed out. The bride and groom are both widely known in Lincoln, and congratulations were showered upon them in abundance. The bride is one of Lincoln's most charming and accomplished young ladies, and has won a large circle of friends during the short time that she has resided in this city. Mr. Horton is of the well-known firm of Dean & Norton, and has lived in Lincoln about twelve years, and holds a warm place in the hearts of a large portion of the best people of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Horton took the Burlington train in the evening for Colorado, where they will remain about two months. They will be at home at 1044 36th Street after August first.

Few people are aware of the endeavors of the management of the "Lincoln Park" in presenting to the public a place for outdoor recreations, with many attractions and easily accessible. After a season of indoor amusements, consisting of balls, parties, teas and afternoon receptions, we find advancing upon us the hot summer days, and with it the desire to find some shady retreat from the scorching rays of the sun. Having in view the wishes of the Lincolinites, the management has undertaken no slight task in promising the public a park, which, while not in size, will, in advantage, equal the famous parks of the East. They have already in their tract of ground many beautiful attractions, and when the park is completed, it will certainly be of great benefit to the city of Lincoln. As we pass through the broad gates onto the beautiful drive, we notice with pleasure the beautiful landscape and surroundings. To the left are the ball grounds, one of the finest in the country; further on we come to the fishing and boating grounds, with a careful selection of row-boats, and the beautiful steamer "Hope." Special places have been provided for picnickers, with every convenience possible. Access can easily be had to this favorite resort by the electric railway.

A very pretty entertainment was given by Mrs. Herpolsheimer at the residence 13th and E streets, to the many young friends of her daughter Miss Ida, in whose honor the party was given, the occasion being the sixteenth anniversary birthday of the young lady. Those present were: Misses Roy Wendelin, Burke, Smith, Schlegel, Blake, May Wendelin, Hattie Herpolsheimer, Gertrude Ernst, Messrs. Robinson, Dave Small, Frank Small, Fred Herpolsheimer, Alfred Herpolsheimer, James Gatchell, Albert Herpolsheimer.

Washington dispatches confirm the statement made in last week's COURIER to the effect that Lieut. Pershing is an applicant for the prospective vacancy in the military instructorship at the State University. Should Lieut. Griffith, who by the way has been singularly successful during his term here, winning general approbation for his military skill and effective teaching, withal making himself exceedingly popular with all those with whom he has come in contact, be unable to secure an extension of his time, residents of Lincoln would view with great favor the location of Lieut. Pershing at this point.

Well, have you bought your lady friend a souvenir spoon yet? Of course you know its thrashing fad and to be without a souvenir spoon, your fair one is, so to speak, "not in it." They are a pretty token and one that will always be useful as well as ornamental. There is practical merit in them and it is not like many presents that are given today and forgotten tomorrow. By the way: Hallet has a most elegant line of them in an endless variety of pretty designs and he sells them at a price that is within the reach of even the most to-ry. They range in price from a dollar up. Go around and see him, make a selection, send it to your sweetheart or some other fellows sweetheart and make her happy.

Dyspepsia

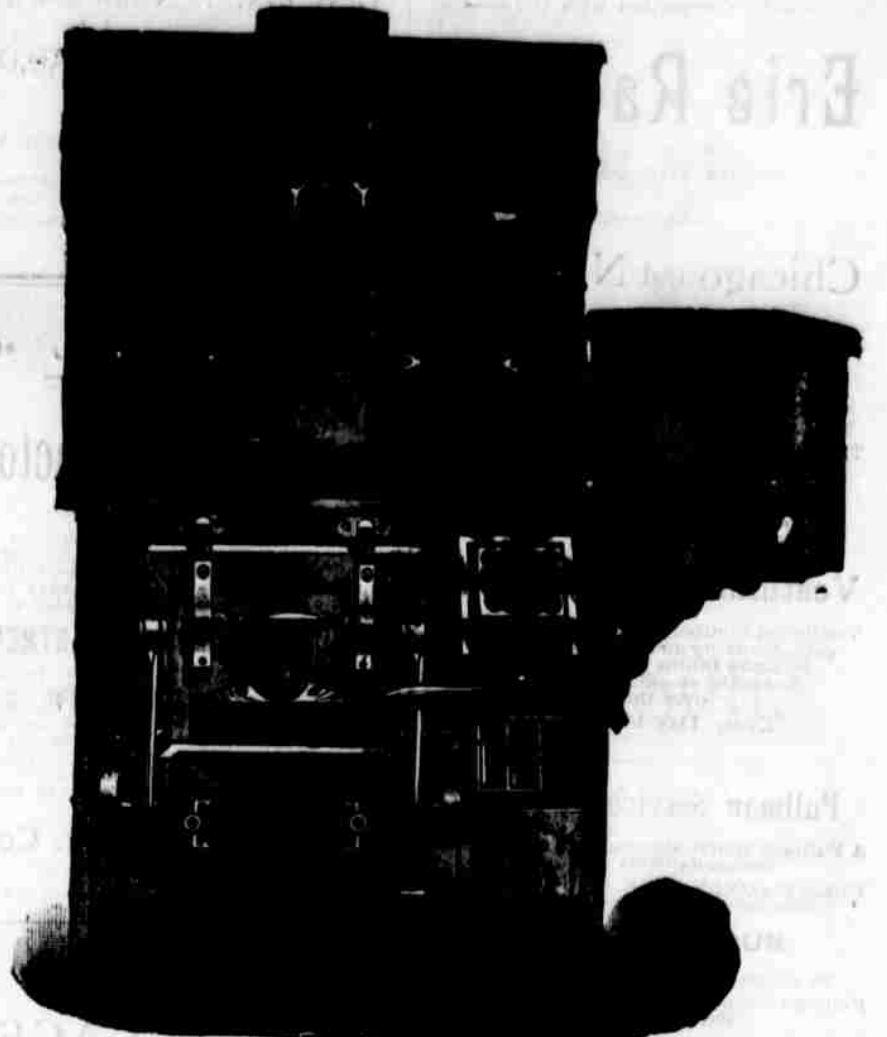

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Waterbury, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only

When Your Wife's Out of Town.

Of all the insidious, temptations invidious—
Contrived by the devil for pulling men down,
There's one more delusive, seductive, abusive—
Than the snare to a man with a wife out of town.
He feels such a delightfulness,
Stay-out-all-night-fulness,
Shall-I-get-tired-fulness,
I own it with pain.
A bachelor rakishness,
What-will-you-take?-ishness,
Next day's headache-ishness,
None can explain.
With a take-every-trick-ishness,
Full-as-a-tick-ishness,
I'll-be-a-brick-ishness,
Though conscience frown.
With a forth-let-us-steal-someness,
Kick-up-your-heels-someness,
There's a wife of the de'il-someness,
In a wife out of town.
